October 7, 2009

Greetings all,

Over the past six years, many of you have worked with my Legislative Assistant, Shiloh Burgess. I am thrilled to announce that Shiloh was married to Andrew Schauer on September 19th in Wenatchee. I am equally thrilled that the new “Mrs. Schauer” will continue to work for me as my Executive Assistant. Shiloh’s new email address is schauer.shiloh@leg.wa.gov. No worries if you forget to use the new address, as anything sent to her old email will be forwarded on to her. Additionally, Shiloh can be reached at our district office in Wenatchee at 509-662-9702.

While we’re on the subject of staff changes I also want to let everyone know that Erika Keech, my Legislative Assistant in Olympia for the past three years, has left my office to attend law school at Gonzaga University. Erika was an absolute pleasure to work with, and while I am excited for her, I must also note that she will be sorely missed.

Erika will be replaced by Sean Graham, an Ellensburg native and a graduate of Central Washington University. Sean worked as an intern for me during the 2007 Legislative Session and as an assistant to the Senate Republican Caucus communications staff last session. He can be reached via email at graham.sean@leg.wa.gov or by phone at 360-786-7622.

Watch for another email update soon. I look forward to staying in touch with everyone as we move into the 2010 Legislative Session, which begins January 11.

All the best,

Linda
